

ZERO MALARIA CHALLENGE: HOW THE LESSONS OF THE PAST CAN INSPIRE PROGRESS TO END MALARIA

PROGRAMME

OPENING AND INTRODUCTION

Message from His Excellency President Uhuru Kenyatta, President of the Republic of Kenya and Chair of the African Leaders Malaria Alliance

Part 1 - Learning from the past: ending malaria is critical to achieving global goals

Global health leaders share lessons learned from decades of progress and discuss why ending malaria is vital for the achievement of Sustainable Development Goals.

- Dialogue between Professor Awa Coll-Seck, Minister of State, Republic of Senegal and Ms Olivia Ngou, Executive Director, Impact Santé Afrique/CS4ME.
- Message from Mr Bill Gates, Co-Chair, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.

Part 2 - Facing the challenges of the present: how the Covid-19 crisis can pave the way for progress

Against the backdrop of Covid-19, how can continued investments in malaria help "pandemic proof" future efforts and strengthen health systems?

- Video: Staying at Zero Malaria in El Salvador.
- Message from Mr John Barsa, Acting USAID Administrator.
- Panel discussion:
 - » Ms Josephine Anan-Ankomah, Group Executive Commercial Banking, Ecobank;
 - » Ms Wendy Morton MP, Minister for European Neighbourhood and the Americas at the UK Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office;
 - » Mr Peter Sands, Executive Director, Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria;
 - » Dr Kenneth Staley, US Global Malaria Coordinator.

Part 3 - Fight for our future: a new wave of leadership towards Zero Malaria

Youth malaria champions discuss the importance of citizen participation and how we can usher in a new generation of youth leadership in the fight to end malaria.

The Zero Malaria generation panel with:

- » Dr Elvis Eze, Zero Malaria Youth Champion;
- » Ms Keodane Hem, Youth Council Member at the Global Fund;
- » Mr Dustin Liu, US Youth Observer to the UN;
- » Ms Winter Okoth, Nothing but Nets Champion.

CLOSING REMARKS

Dr Abdourahmane Diallo, CEO, RBM Partnership to End Malaria and Hon. Mutahi Kagwe, Cabinet Secretary for Health, Republic of Kenya.

Q&A WITH THE SPEAKERS

PLEASE REGISTER HERE:

zeromalariachallenge.org/register

Date:

Thursday 1 October

Time:

13:00 -15:00 GMT

Language:

English
French
Spanish